WHITE CITY.

Colored People Barred, and the Definite Article Not in the Name.

A curious circumstance in connection with the recent granting of a postoffice to White City, in Ervada county, Fla., was the refusal of the government officials in Washington to call it "The White City"—the name given to the settlement by the colonists themselves, now numbering about 700. Such a thing had never been asked before, so the records showed, and Postmaster General Bissell, who was personally appealed to in this case, declined to establish a precedent by granting an official use of the definite article in the names of postoffices.

The name—The White City—had been selected for two sections: First, in commemoration of the World's fair, where Mr. Louis Pio, the promoter, did his best work in raising his colony, and, second, because the population of the town is composed wholly of white people. The company will not sell any land to negroes nor are white purchasers permitted to do so hereafter, and no negroes are employed in or about the city.

All labor of every description is done by the colonists themselves, and it is their best that they will build up a great city without the employment of a single colored man. At the same time, hundreds of places are being built by the railroad contractors after the completion of the East Coast line applied for work, but they were told that they were not wanted. Now the blacks steer clear of the place, and the colonists are very much gratified at this. The experiment of establishing a strictly white community in one of the states of the south will be watched with deep interest all over the country.—New York Tribune.

The American Disease—Paralysis. Frank Hutton, the well-known journalist, is the last to fall a victim to what is coming to be considered an American disease—paralysis—caused generally by an excess of mental application. So frequent have become these cases of the prostration of men engaged in business or other enterprises requiring the active use of the brain through long hours and continuously that extinction by paralysis, sometimes accompanied by softening of the brain, is beginning to be considered a "natural death" for certain classes of working Americans. The end is frequently predicted for such some time in advance of its arrival. Each case where the sufferer is a prominent person, known to a wide circle or to the country, is made the occasion of a warning on the part of the press against the American passion for overwork and the need of more leisure and relaxation in American life, but so far no visible result has come from these warnings, frequently written by men who themselves disregard them. Nations, like individuals, have their sins and consequent forms of punishment. The American vice is a prodigality in work, and the penalty is paralysis.—Kansas City Star.

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION.

How Should a Chicago Gent Ask a Lady at a Ball to Dance?

Among the many seekers for truth who daily tap The Times reservoir of information comes one who modestly shields his identity behind the initials "L. L. L." He inquires:

"Which is the proper way for a gent at a ball to ask a lady to dance?"

The question submitted by "L. L. L." is received with the utmost satisfaction. Standing alone, it is a refutation of those cruel slanders and glibly written of which eastern persons earn their fugitive existence. It has been charged against Chicago that her citizens are too ardent in the pursuit of the clanging iron dollar to give attention to the amenities of life. It is further libelously alleged that the soft, sensuous music of the roat and the ball falls flat and dull upon the Chicago tympanum attuned to the song of the dying swine. In brief, it is asserted by eastern critics that there is no fine, silky aspect to the nature of the Chicagoese—no gumdrop side to the character. Does not the artless query of the retiring "L. L. L." afford sufficient proof to the contrary? Does it not also show that the efforts of The Times toward leading its subscribers to a higher intellectual and social life have not been in vain?

But to the question. It all depends on L. L. L. Out in Bridgeport, for instance, the gent being unused perhaps to everyday association with the ladies, approaches the subject with trembling, but in a logical way withal. He first builds his nerve.

"Gimme some barbed wire," he says to the man in front of the back bar.

"What d'yer wash wid?"

"Seltzer, for a chaser," and the preliminaries are thus arranged. Then the gent goes to the other end of the hall with a proud, haughty front, lays his hat on a chair and his cigar with it and says:

"You're my pick," to which the lady responds, "Well, catch on den," or maybe invites him to go take a walk.

Over Humboldt park way the process is much the same, although the language is different. At Uhlich's hall, over by the bridge, there is slight difference, except that the gent who is wise in his generation wears his hat and keeps the cigar in his mouth. On West Madison to the "Has yer got a bloke for den?" well? No? Come wid me, sis. Come wid me.

Further to the southwest, in the Blue Island avenue district, "Les' trash on a few more of de foun' boards!" seems to be the proper form. Due reverence must be paid local prejudice, and it is only in a case of such importance as to formulate a rule. Bear in mind in this connection that if the lady declines the request no true gent will strike her. All society sets its face against this.—Chicago Times.

Why has Sociodist Become the staple Dentifrice? Simply because it is imposed to use it, even for a week, without perceiving its hygienic effect upon the teeth, the gums and the breath.

SATURDAY, JUNE 9, 1894.

THE MINERS' STRIKE.

About 300,000 miners are striking against a reduction of wages in the coal producing regions of the United States. According to the census of 1890 those miners averaged about $6.50 per week when performing six days' labor. An attempt was made by mine owners, in consequence of the dull times, to reduce the scale of wages from 20 to 30 per cent. The miners refused to accede to the proposed reduction and a strike was the result. This strike extends to all the coal mining regions east of the Rocky Mountains. All attempts to adjust the differences between employers and employees have failed and riots are the order of the day.

In Colorado, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania the civil authorities have been unable to protect life and property and the militia have been ordered out to keep peace. Lives have been lost in conflicts between the strikers and deputies in nearly all the States mentioned. The strikers have been as disorderly in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania as they have been in Colorado, and the authorities have been no more successful in preventing or quelling disturbances than they have been in Colorado. The newspapers of goldbug proclivities on this Coast, however, lay great stress on the Colorado troubles and endeavor to make it appear that Governor Waite of that State is responsible for them. This, of course, is to prejudice the minds of their readers against the Populists. Governor Waite attempted to effect a compromise with the striking miners in his State. He considers arbitration better than bullets in settling the disputed points between the owners of the mines and those who work in the mines, and because he does so is roundly denounced as a crank by almost every goldbug paper in the country. Though the strikers have behaved no worse in Colorado than in Indiana and Ohio, Governor Waite is censured while the Governors of the other States are seldom alluded to in connection with the riots. In Ohio railroad bridges have been burned and trains cut into sections to obstruct railroad travel, although there are two or three regiments of militia under arms by order of the Governor. There have been conflicts between the authorities and the strikers in a half dozen States, yet none of the Governors are held responsible except Waite of Colorado.

Scarcely a year passes in which there is not serious trouble between employers and employees in Pennsylvania. In 1877 more property was destroyed by strikers in the vicinity of Pittsburgh than in all the present troubles, and United States troops were ordered out to quell the disturbances. Less than two years since there was great loss of life at the Carnegie works because of strikes, but the Governor was not held responsible, presumably because he was not a Populist.

That the present general strike is attributable to the demonization of silver and the contraction of the circulating medium there is no reasonable doubt, but as Republicans and Democrats are responsible for that the goldbug press is silent as to the real cause and make Governor Waite the scapegoat for all the evils of Wall street legislation.

THE STATE BANK TAX.

The defeat of the bill to repeal the 10 per cent on State bank currency, disposes of another plank of the Chicago platform. On the roll call on Cox's amendment to the Brawley bill 88 Republicans, 75 Democrats and 9 Populists voted nay, and 120 Democrats voted yes. A viva voce vote was then taken on the Brawley bill and it was defeated.

The Chicago platform recommended the repeal of the State bank tax, yet the bill to repeal that tax was defeated by men elected on that platform. The proposition did not meet with general favor from the public, notwithstanding the scarcity of money. The people do not want State bank currency. They believe the Government should issue money in sufficient volume to meet the requirement of the country. There is no discount on such money. It passes current in all parts of the country, and there is no danger of its being valueless so long as the Government survives.

The defeat of the State Bank Tax bill will give an impetus to the free coinage movement. The business interests of the country require an expansion of the currency. This cannot be accomplished through State banks so long as notes issued by such banks are taxed ten per cent. The first indispensable step in the great work of monetary reform is the free coinage of silver at the historical American ratio of 16 to 1. This every farmer, miner, business and workman in the country should contend for until the goldbugs are compelled to yield to the popular will.

Judge Randolph Hiram of the Circuit Court married a couple yesterday whose combined age is 146 years. The contracting parties are Edward Jones of Philadelphia, aged 70, and Mrs. Sarah Higgins, aged 76 years, widow of George Higgins, formerly Judge of the St. Louis County Court.

The baggage and smoking cars of the passenger train of the Colorado Central were derailed near Clear Creek yesterday and four passengers were injured.

THE CRIPPLE CREEK STRIKE.

The Militia Hold the Key to the Situation.

CRIPPLE CREEK, June 8.—The situation became warlike at 10 o'clock, when the entire force of deputies started for Bull Hill with gatling guns. General Brooks ordered the deputies to halt and return with their gatling guns, but the order was ignored. An order was at once given the militia men to fall in between the opposing forces and prevent a meeting if possible.

At 11 a. m. 200 deputies, headed by General Adams, are near the dynamite plant on Carbonate Hill placed by the miners.

At 12:15 p. m. a telephone message from Secretary George McMillan of the Miners' Union states that no resistance will be offered to the advance of the deputies on Bull Hill. A majority of miners for whom warrants have been issued have already scattered over the hills.

Johnson, the leader, is believed to be a fugitive. The miners who remain will go to work under the protection of the deputies, who will take possession of all the mines.

C. W. Wright and W. A. McClelland of Colorado Springs were accidentally shot to-day by a deputy who handled his gun carelessly. Wright was seriously wounded in the groin and is not expected to recover. McClelland was wounded in the knee.

General Brooks, at the head of the State troops, intercepted the deputies and ordered Sheriff Bowers to send them back to camp. After some parleying, Bowers complied, and the militia now hold the key to the situation. The militia will take possession of the mines as soon as an order is received from Governor Waite and a greater part of the deputies will be sent home, probably to-morrow. The miners' leaders are fleeing in all directions.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

The Claim Against the Stanford Estate.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Hoar's resolution to set at rest the claim of the Government against the estate of the late Leland Stanford was laid before the Senate at the opening session to-day. Teller suggested that the resolution be modified to confine the inquiry simply to the advisability of releasing the Stanford estate, without touching the validity of the claim, in order not to affect other claims which the Government might have. Hoar agreed to modify the resolution in accordance with the suggestions.

Teller recounted a conversation he had had with Stanford shortly before his death, in which he expressed his intention to transfer as rapidly as possible the title to that portion of his estate which he intended to dedicate to the Leland Stanford, Jr., University.

White of California said the suit brought by the United States against the estate of the late Senator was instituted to prevent the distribution of the estate before the debt owing to the Government from the Central Pacific, of which Stanford was a stockholder, fell due. There had been no dereliction on the part of the Attorney-General, as suit could not have been instituted before Stanford's death under which the corporation was organized.

Allen of Nebraska, moved to lay the resolution on the table. The motion was carried—24 to 19—as follows: Yeas—Allen, Berry, Blackburn, Cockrell, Coke, Daniel, Faulkner, George, Harris, Huntton, Jarvis, Jones of Arkansas, Kyle, McLaurin, Martin, Mills, Mitchell of Wisconsin, Murphy, Pasco, Pepper, Smith, Turpie, Vest, White. Total, 24. Nays—Allison, Chandler, Cullom, Davis, Dixon, Dolph, Dubois, Frye, Hawley, Higgins, Hoar, McMillan, Perkins, Platt, Shoup, Teller, Voorhees, Washburn. Total, 19.

A Young Lady Attempts Suicide.

OAKLAND, June 8.—Lena Frye, a pretty German girl, quarreled with her lover, Fred Cuhn, an employee of the Cape Ann Bakery, yesterday afternoon. Then she went to Lake Merritt and threw herself into the three feet of water the lake contains. She soon discovered, however, that the water was very cold, and after wading around a while without finding any deep water, the girl decided that she would postpone her suicide, and with the assistance of a small corps of Salvation Army soldiers she was led to a convenient landing place and thence taken to the city prison. She was detained there two hours and sent home.

An Attempt to Wreck a Train Near Albany.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 8.—An attempt was made to wreck the passenger train due here at 8:40 p. m., at Rockefeller's crossing, on the Delaware and Hudson road, last night. A rail had been fastened across the track. The train crashed into the obstruction and tore off the fastenings, but did not leave the track. There were about 500 passengers aboard, but barring a shaking up no one was injured.

Starving Miners in Sicily.

ROME, June 8.—It is said Signor Crispi will form a reconciliation Cabinet, to include the Marquis di Rudina and Signor Zanardelli.

Signor Colajani, member of the Chamber of Deputies, has written to the Secolo describing the condition of the mining population in Sicily, which, he says, is most desperate. Thirty thousand miners on the island are starving and hopeless of an improvement.

They are threatening to burn the crops on the various estates, and declare that if they are condemned to die of hunger others shall share their lot.

An Oregon Cyclone.

BAKER CITY, June 8.—A disastrous and death-dealing cyclone passed over a portion of Grant county Saturday. The path of the cyclone was from Fox valley to Long creek, passing within a few hundred yards of the town of Long Creek, and demolishing everything in its way. James Parrish, a farmer, and wife and child were killed. A number of houses were destroyed and the loss of live stock was considerable. The cyclone was accompanied by a terrible hail-storm. Some of the stones measured seven and one-half inches in circumference.

THE OREGON ELECTION.

The returns from the Oregon election indicate a Republican plurality of 15,000 or more in a total vote of 80,000. Two years ago the Republicans polled 34,458 for their candidates for Congress and the Populist candidates at the same time received 13,458 votes. There were no State officers elected in June, 1892, consequently there are no data on which to base comparisons.

In Multnomah county, the most populous in the State, it is impossible to get complete returns, but the belief is that the Republicans elected the entire county ticket except Sheriff. In Portland the Republicans elected the Mayor by about 700 majority, and the whole city ticket except two Councilmen.

The returns from counties remote from the Capital come in slowly in consequence of floods and washouts and it will be some days before the exact figures are known. Enough has been ascertained, however, to prove that Republicans and Democrats in many parts of the State voted the same ticket. This is in accordance with the opinions expressed by the advocates of silver remonetization that there is no difference between the old parties except in name and ten or twelve per cent in tariff schedules.

Live Lelaurely

Is good advice, but live carefully is better. In both cases Simmons Liver Regulator will help you live best. It keeps the liver active, the bowels regular, and helps throw off the poison in the system which causes malaria and rheumatism. The Regulator also promotes digestion, and never fails to relieve the most severe cases of dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness.

To Cleanse The System.

Effectually yet gently, when costive or bilious or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headaches, colds or fevers, use Syrup of Figs.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

M. Hammerly, a well-known business man of Hillsboro, Va., sends this testimony to the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla: "Several years ago, I hurt my leg, the injury leaving a sore which led to erysipelas. My sufferings were extreme, my leg from the knee to the ankle, being a solid sore, which began to extend to other parts of the body. After trying various remedies, I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had finished the first bottle, I experienced great relief; the second bottle effected a complete cure."

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers, and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Now Try This.

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a cough, cold, or any trouble with throat, chest or lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to give relief, or money will be paid back. Sufferers from lagrippe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and perfect recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. BREVITIES.

C. H. Cobb of Carson is here on a visit.

There are 20,000 Illinois miners now out on strike.

Mrs. A. H. Manning took the train last night for San Francisco.

Mrs. Orville Sessions took the train for San Francisco last night.

Hon. J. W. Haines returned from California yesterday morning.

Trenmor Coffin of Ormsby arrived from San Francisco yesterday.

Miss Bardenwerper was among the western departures last evening.

Bishop Leonard arrived on last evening's train and remained over.

J. F. O'Connell of Verdi returned from the eastern part of the State last night.

Ex-Senator Evan Williams of Ormsby was a passenger from San Francisco yesterday.

Richard Ryland left for San Francisco last night, where he will spend a couple of weeks.

Wm. Levy, of the Palace Dry Goods House, returned home yesterday much improved in health.

Philadelphia has 1,027 police to keep a population of 1,121,653 within the bounds of the law.

Mrs. J. H. Kinkead and daughter arrived on yesterday morning's train and continued on to Virginia City.

American meat dominates the markets of Europe. If shipments are delayed three days the price goes up.

Joe Marzen of Lovelock and L. Braundstein, the cattleman, were passengers on the west-bound train last evening.

Sheriff E. S. Turner of Lincoln county left on yesterday morning's V. & T., having in charge a prisoner committed to the penitentiary.

T. G. Herman was a passenger on the V. & T. yesterday morning on his way to the hot springs, near Genoa, where he will remain a few days.

W. F. & Co. received thirty-one cases and forty tubs of butter from Carson last night. Ten more were added from the Reno Creamery, and the whole shipped west.

August Bolle arrived last night from Paradise Valley. He says Kennedy is the great attraction at present, and there are over 400 men in the camp and more arriving daily.

Frederick Frey, one of the graduates from the School of Mines at the University, contemplates leaving for Arizona, where he has been offered a position in an assay office.

Town Topics of New York gives currency to a rumor that D. O. Mills is engaged to a leading young belle of that city, who is much younger than his daughter, Mrs. Whitlaw Reid.

The trial of George Jameson against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company was in progress at Carson yesterday. Jameson was injured on the Verdi bridge sometime ago by an engine and now sues for damages.

UNIVERSITY AFFAIRS.

Items of Interest From the Regents Proceedings.

At the meeting of the Board of University Regents it was shown that there is a balance of $3,393.80 in the Experiment Station Fund, and of $157.18 in the Agricultural College Fund. There is, however, a deficiency of $3,300 in this fund, and there will be no money to pay salaries until August 15th. The Contingent University Fund has $5,573.70. The May expenses against the fund amounted to $720.27. In the Mining Laboratory Fund there is $2,284.83, and the expenses for May were $209.12.

If the expenditures are not reduced there will be a deficiency before the Legislature meets, and the Board is devising means to prevent such a contingency.

There are nine young men who are doing work to pay their expenses while attending the University, and some others who are being helped. There are also four young ladies who are given opportunity to earn their expenses.

The Board resolved to tender a vote of thanks to Roger Pendergast and General Keating of Virginia City for a blower presented to the Mining Department of the University.

President Fish, from the Committee on Dormitory, reported progress.

There were twenty-two graduates, two from the School of Liberal Arts, three from the School of Mines, seven from the Commercial Department and ten from the Normal.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

More Storms and Cool Waves.

(Copyrighted 1894, by W. T. Foster.)

St. JOSEPH, Mo., June 9.—My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm waves to cross the continent from June 14th to 17th, and the next will reach the Pacific Coast about the 18th, cross the Western Mountains by the close of the 19th, the Great Central valleys from the 20th to 22d, and the Eastern States about the 23d.

The week promises to average cooler than the general average temperature for June. This has reference to the whole country and only indicates that places of low temperature will exceed those of a high temperature. Rainfall will occur in spots above the average from the 95th meridian eastward.

The warm wave will cross the Western mountains about the 18th, the Great Central valleys about the 20th, and the Eastern States about the 22d. The cool wave will cross the Western mountains about the 21st, the Great Central valleys about the 23d, and the Eastern States about the 25th.

Before Justice Linn.

J. J. Becker, who was arrested on a charge of selling intoxicants to minors, was tried in the Justice's Court yesterday by a jury. Conclusive evidence was produced that the crime had been committed, and the jury after a few moments deliberation brought in a verdict of guilty as charged in the complaint. After the jury had been polled, it was requested that they be permitted to make a statement through one of the members of the jury, and the request was granted. Mr. W. H. Fogg, one of the jurors, stated substantially that they had found Mr. Becker guilty as charged, for under the law they could not do otherwise, but believed that Mr. Becker had been imposed upon by the young men, hence they asked the Court to impose as light a penalty as possible. The selling of intoxicants is a misdemeanor and punishable by fine or imprisonment, the minimum fine being $25, which in Mr. Becker's case will likely be imposed together with costs of suit. It is said that suits will be brought against others on the same charge.

A Good Appetite.

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The loss of a rational desire for food is soon followed by lack of strength, for when the supply of fuel is cut off the fire burns low. The system gets into a low state, and is liable to serve attacks of disease. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its great merits in restoring and sharpening the appetite, in promoting healthy action of the digestive organs and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes, the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine. Those who have never used Hood's Sarsaparilla should surely do so this season.

A Pertinent Question.

CANDELARIA, June 7, 1894.

EDITOR JOURNAL: During the last campaign we heard a great deal about the Silver or Populist party being a tail to the Democratic kite. All through the present Congress we have seen the Republicans combine with the Cleveland Democrats against silver. Now, since we read of the combination between the Democrats and Republicans against the Populists in Portland, Oregon, might we not exclaim, as did the negro on seeing his first elephant, "Which am de tail?"

A PARABLE.

History Repeateth Itself Not This Time.

I.

1—And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

2—And, behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was chief among the Publicans.

3—And he sought to see Jesus, who he was, and could not for the press.

4—And he ran before and climbed into a sycamore tree to see him.

5—And when Jesus came to the place he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, "Zaccheus, come down, for to-day I must abide at thy house."

6—And he made haste and came down and received him joyfully.

II.

1—And in these latter days, the days of Coxeyites, Goldbugs and other dire and necessary evils, behold, there was a man of Reno, named George, and he was one of the elders of the tribe.

2—And he ran before the people, who elected him to the tree called the Silver Commissioner tree;

3—Yea, to the very topmost perch thereof, called the Chairmanship that they might see him.

4—And behold there came to that place a certain scribe and Pharisee who, looking up, saw him, and said softly to him, so that the multitude might not hear:

5—"George, make haste and come down with the county printing. George, come down, for to-day I would fain abide with thee; yea, wax fat in the bowels of thy treasury."

6—But the elder answered not.

7—Whereat the scribe again softly lifted up his voice, saying:

8—"Come down, George, and with thee bring the county printing. I would embrace thee. Mum shall be the word, and I, even I, shall defend thee against all the assaults of thine enemies."

9—And still the elder answered not, nor did he descend.

10—Then the scribe waxed exceedingly wrath, and lifting up his voice so the multitude might hear, he cried out:

11—"Thou arbitrary, stubborn man, I shall overwhelm thee with the vials of my wrath—yea, annihilate thee with a scratch of my pen."

12—"I shall evolve a Hurley-burley to destroy thee."

13—"Verily, I shall raise Hades with thee, and set Gehenna a-popping."

14—And still the elder answered not.

15—"Thereupon the scribe departed, gnashing his teeth, and there arose a great flood of that which is called in the language of that country, "Journalistic Blackmail."

16—And the multitude, looking on, wondered not, understanding.

Telegraph Notes.

Senator McPherson of New Jersey is quite ill with stomach and nerve troubles.

The striking miners in Ohio are burning bridges on railroads to prevent trains from hauling coal.

The Willamette is falling at Portland, Oregon. It will cost millions to repair the damages caused by the flood.

Dr. Henry Meyer, who poisoned Louis Brandt to get the insurance on his life, has been sentenced to Sing Sing Prison for life.

The extent of the casualties in the skirmish between the miners and deputies at Cripple Creek, Colorado, was the loss of a thumb.

The United States Marshal and deputies arrested 175 industrialists who seized a train at Mohave, and has taken them to Los Angeles.

The negro who murdered Deputy Sheriff Carver at Westover, Virginia, was taken from the county jail by a mob of 400 men and shot to death.

The Midwinter Fair Executive Committee decided to keep the Fair open until September 30th, but all special attractions will cease after July 4th.

At the American Medical Congress, San Francisco, the Committee on Revision of Ethics reported an amendment which practically permits regulars to consult with members of other schools of medicine. The minority strongly protested against the innovation.

A man was found hanging to a limb near the Iron Mountain Railroad, Arkansas. Papers on the body bore the name of G. W. Houston, Liberty, Ill. There was $30 in money on the body.

On the Chataqua, N. Y., railroad a mixed train of passengers and freight cars was going at a terrific rate down the incline into Bloomingdale, when the rear coaches became derailed and went over the other and were demolished. The rails were torn up and bent. The passengers and train hands escaped injury.

SPECIMEN CASES.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg and doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

Blood Poisoned After Typhoid Fever
A Marvelous Cure by Hood's After All Else Failed.

Mrs. Phoebe L. Hall.

"O. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:—Dear Sir:—Twenty-five years ago I had a bilious fever, and later it turned into typhoid fever, and for five weeks I lay like one dead, but at last I pulled through and got up around. I soon discovered on my left leg just above the knee a small brown spot about as big as a three-cent piece, which puffed up but did not hurt me or feel sore. I did not pay any attention to it until two years after, when it commenced to spread and have the appearance of a ring worm. It itched and burned and I commenced doctoring, but to no avail. I

And sometimes not even that. I could not sleep nights, and on account of the itching I scratched the spot until the blood would run. In hot weather my elbows and all my joints were just the same, and what I have suffered I cannot describe with a pen. Last February I tried an herb for the blood and it broke out in the worst form of a rash all over my body. I began my scratching, and scales would fall off. The sores continued to discharge and I longed to die. Finally my husband bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and I had not taken more than half of it before I began to change for the better. A PROBLEM IN BEESWAX.
Men of Science Puzzled by the Deposit on the Shore of the North Pacific.
The beeswax found in large quantities on Nehalem beach has from time to time for years past attracted the attention of the curious and enlisted the inquiry of scientists. The generally accepted theory that in some prehistoric era a vessel, wax laden, went ashore at that place is frequently disturbed by some less probable surmise for a time, and after exciting some speculation and comment drops out of sight. The latest of these comes from Mr. Odium, who, in connection with the department of archeology of a British Columbia college, is collecting data from which he proposes to show that the Indians of the Pacific coast are descendants of certain Asiatic races. He desires to know whether the wax found at Nehalem is actual beeswax or mineral wax, hoping to forge a missing link in his chain of evidence by means of information upon that point.
It has been shown by careful scientific analysis that the wax is of mineral origin, but it may be said in this connection that the substance is to all appearance genuine beeswax; that this appearance is corroborated by the faint, subtle odor of beeswax, which lingers around the storm-battered specimens that have been from time to time brought up from the beach, and that no one from tasting it could tell that the piece sampled was not identical with that surreptitiously bitten from the yellow, thread marked ball which was a part of the furnishing of his mother's workbasket in his boyhood. More than this, the wing of a bee has been found imbedded in the wax, furnishing irrefutable evidence of the true nature of the substance.
The Pacific coast Indians may be descendants of an ancient Asiatic race, but it is not likely that any more conclusive proof of this will ever be developed by the most painstaking research than that which this little brown bee's wing furnishes of the fact that the Nehalem beeswax is beeswax. How it came there will probably never be known definitely until the secrets of the unremembered ages are rescued from the tomb of time and incorporated in the written history of the days that were, but now are not. Practical people are not looking for an occurrence of this kind, hence they are prepared to accept the evidence of their senses in regard to the nature of this mysterious deposit in the sands of the seashore and to abandon attempts that are more than likely to prove futile to discover how and when the beeswax, fantastically molded and curiously stamped, voyaged thither and was thrown upon the beach.—Portland Oregonian.

WOMEN IN SMOKERS.
A Squabble on In England Over the Desire of Women to Hide in Smoking Cars.
Englishmen and women have been discussing to the extent of column after column the indignant letters in one of the great dailies on a subject which, it is safe to say, will not soon arise on your side of the Atlantic. It is a growing practice of women to ride in the smoking compartments of the railway carriages. All the woman haters have joined the chorus of denunciation of the invasion. They argue that the sign "Smoking" means for men only, just as other compartments are reserved for women only. This is resented by the new privilege seeking women, some of whom admit frankly that they love tobacco fumes, while others allege the superior germ killing and sanitary advantages of a tobacco laden atmosphere in promiscuous company.
The men retort that selfish women go among the smokers because they receive courtesies and attentions which they do not get from their own sex. The squabble is developing a degree of heat and bitterness that is truly alarming.—London Cor. New York Sun.

Sam Jones' Prescription for Billionaires.
After the tremendous men's meeting the other night Brother Sam Jones was thoroughly exhausted, and he felt sick. Brother Jones is of a bilious temperament, and his sallow complexion tells plainly that while all is well between Brother Jones and his soul there is war between him and his liver. Brother Jones felt bad at bedtime, and Brother Owens told him: "Go to God with it, brother. He'll straighten you out."
"Take a dose of pills," suggested the reporter. And Brother Jones followed the advice of Owens and the reporter, and as a result when he got up this morning he was all right and much refreshed. He said:
"Prayer was the thing, but I must admit that the pills did much good, and from now on my prescription for biliousness will be one prayer and three pills before bedtime."—Waco Dispatch in Galveston News.

Found a Fortune Through a Clairvoyant.
Nelson Chace of Auburn, Me., who is reported to have fallen heir to a fortune of $6,000,000, is in this city and confirms the story of his good fortune. A few months ago a clairvoyant told Chace that there was a large estate awaiting him and advised him to find his heir brother. He found the missing relative—William T. Phelps—in this city, and on investigation learned that two uncles had died in San Francisco some time ago, without leaving wills, and their property, which is said to be worth about $5,000,000, has since been in the care of the state.—Boston Globe.

Widows' Pensions in Virginia.
Numbers of persons are applying to the auditor of public accounts to get state pensions for widows of Confederate soldiers. All of these do not understand that these pensions are only given to widows (remaining unmarried) whose husbands lost their lives "during the war."
Widows whose husbands have died "since the war" are not entitled to pensions under the existing law.—Richmond Dispatch.

BALD HEADS!
What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

Skookum Root Hair Grower
Is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the diseases of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither mineral nor oil. It is not a dye, but a delicately cooling and refreshing tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads.
If your druggist cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward prepaid, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.00 per bottle; 4 for $3.50. Shoop, 50c per jar for $2.50.

DID THE HORSE PLAY THIS TRICK!
How Two Spanish Gentlemen Happened to Forget to Pay Their Check.
There is a small all night restaurant in a Twenty-ninth street basement where gentlemen of more or less bohemian instincts sometimes go for a quiet bottle and a taste of seasonable delicacies.
As I sat there one night I observed that the two sharp featured gentlemen in dress suits who sat at the table next to mine had already dispatched their second bottle of Chateau Yquem, besides a liberal array of toothsome edibles. They were now chatting over their cigarettes. The greater part of the conversation was in Spanish. Finally they gathered up their overcoats to go, and as they stepped toward the door, apparently to settle the bill, one of them said to the waiter, "Call in our cab driver and give him a drink."
The jehu entered promptly. "I'll leave the door open if you don't mind, so as to keep an eye on the boss," he said. "He plays tricks on me sometimes."
The beaming "night hawk" had raised his glass of a liberal three fingers of whisky, and was just remarking, "Here's looking at ye, gentlemen," when he glanced out the open door and realized that the "boss" that plays tricks sometimes was leisurely ambling off toward Broadway. Dropping the glass unemptied, he bolted for the door, closely followed by the two gentlemen who were dress suits and talked Spanish. They latter were laughing merrily, as though the whole affair were a good joke.
They didn't come back right away, and when the cashier, somewhat uneasily, went outside and looked down the street, night hawk, "boss," Spanish gentlemen and all had disappeared.
Then the cashier came back behind his desk. He looked ruefully at the figures on the unpaid check, banged the cash register viciously as he rang up another customer's 15 cents for a cocktail and remarked, "I'd like to know whether or that 'boss' was taught to play those tricks or whether my Spanish friends simply took advantage of what was really an accident."
Discoursing the beads of the Church of St. Roch, in Paris, died on Saturday. He was almost famous for his tall stature, increasing air and portly figure, and was at once the tallest of the Paris beards and the senior of them all. Prevost, the bearded of the Madeleine, stood next in stature, and after him came the bearded of Notre Dame, an ex-drum major, who was engaged two years ago by Archbishop Richard.
Discoursing was a passionate lover of billiards and went every evening to play at the Cafe Regence, where he used to measure his skill with M. Grevy before the latter was president of the republic. He constantly saw there a man taller than himself, Mr. Theodor Tilton, the American poet, who went to La Regence to play chess and was more than a match for Grevy. The poet of beards in a Paris church is a much envied one among the class of men who compete for it. At Notre Dame, the Madeleine and St. Cloud the salary is $30, and there are perquisites at grand weddings and funerals. In smaller churches the pay is $40. The gorgeous uniforms and silver headed wand are provided by the vestry.—London News.

Boiler Scales.
The use of oil in preventing boiler scale now so prevalent is not with the objection that in using other than standard oil of 150 to 300 degrees fire test there is danger of the formation of what is called oil scale. This, according to chemical authority, is owing to the fact that when the higher fire test oils are introduced they rise and float upon the top of the water, and the latter, impregnated with sediment and mud, boils and bubbles up through the oil scum on top, and the water becoming vaporized it liberates the particles of mud and scale contained, which fall back upon this layer of oil upon the top of the water. After while the layer of oil becomes so impregnated with mineral substances that it sinks to the bottom of the boiler, forming an incrustation, or scale, which is as injurious to the boiler as is the lime or magnesium scale. But the same objection, it is reported, has also been made to crude oil.—New York Sun.

To Her Art.
Miss d'Albertain, one of the lesser painters of France, was as conceited about her artistic ability as she was notorious for her excessive use of cosmetics of all kinds. Her face was a study in enamel, rouge and penciling, and the older she grew the more pronounced it became. On one occasion a certain count, who held her in much disesteem, lost a but to her.
"And what will madame choose?" he asked, with mock courtesy.
"Something in my art," she simpered. "Something I can paint."
"Very well, madame," he replied, bowing himself out.
A day later madame received a package from the count, which, upon being opened, revealed a life size drawing of her own face in outline.—Detroit Free Press.

Wondrous Evolution.
"In the slow evolution of the race," mused the clubman, looking with languid interest at the array of curious garters that stood on the outside of the ropes and fed him with cakes, peanuts and candy, "how many millions of years it must require to evolve from the shapeless and rudimentary projection on the face of the creature called man the full and perfect proboscis!"—Chicago Tribune.
